

The Queen's Award
for Voluntary Service

Welcome from the Centre Manager

I would like to welcome you to Heene Community Centre! There is lots going on here in this buzzing, community centre. The corridor noticeboards are covered in posters advertising the many fabulous classes held here on a regular basis. We have an informative website, a Facebook page with up-to-date news, PowerPoints in the café and corridor displaying events happening at The Heene and an Activity Programme.

In The Spotlight - Monday Dance

Monday Dance (part of the Heene Club) held every Monday afternoon from 1.30pm. Dance keeps both the body and the brain active, vital for people of every age.

QAVS Presentation

On Wednesday 9th October, we are honoured to welcome Mrs Susan Pyper, Lord-Lieutenant of West Sussex to The Heene to present us with the Queen's Award for Voluntary Services. Our volunteers and Trustees of the Heene Community Association, will be among the people invited to this Award Presentation.

Join the Heene Club

The Heene Club run weekly classes. Joining is easy, just fill out a small membership card and pay a small annual subscription, then each time you attend any of the classes, there is a small session fee to pay. This includes a cup of tea or coffee. Everyone is welcome to support The Heene by becoming a member.

Perfect for Parties

Birthday parties, special parties, bouncy castles, bands, barn dances, discos, funeral wakes and wedding receptions. Whatever the occasion, we have several rooms for hire. Call the office for availability and prices.

Special catering by Café one22 on request.
www.facebook.com/cafeone22

The weekly classes are The Chat Room, Bridge, French, Card-making, Friday Art, Saturday Art, Italian, Spanish, Mexican Dominoes, and Short

Mat Bowls on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Alternatively, Heene Woodside Short Mat Bowls Club meet here every Tuesday and Friday afternoons and for more information, contact Maureen: 01903 265275

At the Heart of the community since 1986